Grillers are responsible for bringing a grill or food prep and warming equipment, as needed. DDRA will provide 1 rectangular table, two chairs, and one ticket per cook. You should provide enough food for at least 500 or more samples per item, depending on the cut of meat and sample size. You may decorate the table with banners, additional tablecloths, etc.

Tables Hosts are responsible for bringing food, decorations, and cooling or warming equipment, as needed. Inside tables can have up to 8 different dishes, savory or sweet. DDRA will provide 1 large round table and one ticket per host. You should provide enough food for at least 150 to 200 samples per item.

Sponsors at the $1,000 level will receive name recognition in radio advertisements, logo on print ads, recognition in press releases and social media as well as banner identification at the event. Partners and Other Donors will receive recognition in press releases and social media as well as banner identification at the event.

Parking: You may drive up your table location to unload supplies, grill, and decorations. There will be a designated area to park these vehicles once unloaded, unless the grill is attached to it.

Tickets: You will be required to show a PARKING PASS to enter the garage area to unload. Everyone at your station must have a ticket. Additional persons will be asked to purchase tickets. DDRA will distribute tickets to Grillers, Table Hosts, and Sponsors on the Monday prior to the event.

Banners: Sponsors are asked to provide banners to display at the event with their business logo. DDRA will pick-up these banners beginning October 1 from the business location and return to sponsors by October 30. Grillers and Table Hosts may bring and post banners the day of the event. If you wish for the DDRA to post banners, please have the banner ready for pick-up on Monday prior to the event.
